25X1 2. A total of 34 Soviet war vessels Ind two PT boats, were observed the Swinemwonde harbors including Osternothafen. * They looked very untid, and some showed large bulges on their outer skin. Lost of their crew members were elderly men who, in several cases, raised their first when the merchant wossel was dipping her flag. The ships were berthed in groups of two or three in the harbor. beth charges, some of then with a red stripe about 100 mm wide, were observed on deck of some of the vessels 3. On 5 July blines Sovere mine-sweepers upstream from Osternothafen, All other vessels apparently had left Swinemunde. (Swinoujscie). 4. A diving tender was at the exit of the Kaiserfahrt (dredged channel) into the bay. A divor was under the vater Vessel berthed in the Reinerware or harbor, only the shirmaster was allowed to go ashore. The Folish sentric aligned ing the ship asked the crew for bread. At and digrarettes, bufforned women police armon wife in the Beinerware con harbor, only the shirmaster was allowed to go ashore. The Folish sentric aligned ing the ship asked the crew for bread. At and digrarettes, bufforned women police armon with rivines were seen on the quay. On the return trip on 5 July, the pilot complained about the bad food situation;	7-4	Approved For Belease 2003/08/12 : CIA-RDP82-00457	REPORT NO
SURJECT 1. Soviet Warships in Swinemende 2. Stettin Harbor 2. Stettin Harbor 2. Stettin Harbor 2. Stettin Harbor 3. Swinemende 3. Supplement to 3. Supplement t		INFORMATION REPORT	CD NO.
2. Stettin Harbor 2. Stettin Harbor PLACE ACQUIRED DATE OF INFO. THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION 25X1 2. A total of 34 Soviet war vossals the Swineward war was a series of the Swineward war was a very local war was local war was under the vater 5. Very local war was a very local war was very local war was under the vater local war was local war was a lowed to go ashowe. The folish sontrive was a local war was under the vater local war was under the vater local war was a lowed to go ashowe. The folish sontrive was a lowed to go ashowe. The folish sontrive was a lowed to go ashowe. The folish sontrive was ward with viries local war was under the water local war was a lowed to go ashowe. The folish sontrive was a lowed to go ashowe. The folish sontrive was a lowed to go ashowe. The folish sontrive was under the water local war and cirarettes. Uniformed was a lowed to go ashowe. The folish sontrive was under the water local war and cirarettes. Uniformed was a lowed to go ashowe. The folish sontrive was under the water	COUNTRY	Poland	DATE DISTR. 21 November 1952
25X1 2. A total of 34 Soviet var vessels THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION 25X1 25X1 The Swinemuch harbors including stempth of the very unitid. Cost of their crew members were elderly men who, in several cases, raised their fist when the merchant cases was raised their fist when the merchant cases was falled in the string about 100 phress of the wide, were observed on deck of some of the vossels. 3. On 5 country minerage several cases, raised their fist when the merchant cases was dipping her flat. The ships were berthed in groups of two or three about 100 phress of the with a red string about 100 phress some of the winth a red string about 100 phress some of the winth a red string about 100 phress some of the winth a red string about 100 phress some of the vossels. 4. A diving tender was at the exit of the Kaiserfahrt (dredged channel) into the bay. A diver was under the water 5. Only the shirmaster was allowed to go ashore. The foliah sentric your done was not sent the value of the water on the return trin on 5 July, the pilot complained about the bad foot situation:	SUBJECT	1. Soviet Warships in Swinemende 2. Stettin Harbor
DATE OF INFO. 2. à total of 34 Soviet var vessels THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION 25X1 2. à total of 34 Soviet var vessels The Sminemuente harbors including Osternothafen. * They looked very untid, and some showed day osternothafen. * They looked very untid, and some showed day osternothafen. * They looked Lost of their crew members were gettless on their outer skin. cases, raised their fist when the merchant ossel was dipping her flag. The ships were betthed in groups of to three in the harbor. Lepth charges, some of them with a red stripe about luc mm wide, were observed on deck of some of the vossels. 3. On 5 July bhree Soviet mine-sweepers were provided to the charges of the control of the charge of the charge of the charge of the control of the charge of the char	PLACE ACQUIRED		NO. OF ENCLS.
THIS IS UNEVALUATED (NFORMATION 25X1 2. A total of 34 Soviet war vessels the symmetry of accessing the symmetry of the symm	DATE OF		SUPPLEMENT TO 25X REPORT NO.
25.X1 2. A total of 34 Soviet war vessals and two PT hoats, were observed the Uninemuende harbors including Seternothafen. * They looked very untid, and some showed large bulges on their outer skin. Lost of their crew members were elderly men who, in several cases, raised their fist when the merchant wessel was dipping her flag. The ships were berthed in groups of two or three in the harbor, berth charges, some of them with a red stripe about 100 mm wide, were observed on deck of some of the vessals 3. On 5 July hree Sovret mine-sweepers were a little upstream from Osternothafen, all other vessels apparently had left Swinenu-nde.(Swinoujscle). 4. A diving tender was at the exit of the Kaiserfahrt (dredged channel) into the bay. A diver was under the water only the shipmaster was allowed to go ashere. The Folish sentric guarding the ship asked the crew for bread. The roll she sentred in the return trin on 5 July, the shift is the seen on the quay. On the return trin on 5 July, the filet on the return trin on 5 July, the filet of	OF THE UNITED STATE	A WITHIR THE EBARING OF THE JS. SECTIONS (AS
the Swinemucide harbors including Osternothafen. * They looked very untid; and some showed large bulges on their outer skin. Lost of their crew members were elderly men who, in several cases, raised their fist when the merchant vessel was dipping her flag. The ships were berthed in groups of two or three in the harbor. Derth charges, some of them with a red stripe about 100 mm wide, were observed on deck of some of the vessels. 3. On 5 July hiree Soviet mine-sweepers vere a little upstream from Osternothafen, All other vessels apparently had left Swinemucinde (Swinoujscie). 4. A diving tender was at the exit of the Kaiserfahrt (dredged channel) into the bay. A diver was under the vater vessels informed women police arms with rifes were seen on the quay. On the return trip on 5 July, the pilot complained about the bad food situation complained about the bad food situation	IS PROSECUTED BY LA	THE REPRODUCTION OF THIS FORM IS PROLICITED.
the Swinemucide harbors including Osternothafen. * They looked very untid; and some showed large bulges on their outer skin. Lost of their crew members were elderly men who, in several cases, raised their fist when the merchant vessel was dipping her flag. The ships were berthed in groups of two or three in the harbor. Derth charges, some of them with a red stripe about 100 mm wide, were observed on deck of some of the vessels. 3. On 5 July hiree Soviet mine-sweepers vere a little upstream from Osternothafen, All other vessels apparently had left Swinemucinde (Swinoujscie). 4. A diving tender was at the exit of the Kaiserfahrt (dredged channel) into the bay. A diver was under the vater vessels informed women police arms with rifes were seen on the quay. On the return trip on 5 July, the pilot complained about the bad food situation complained about the bad food situation only the shirmaster was allowed to go ashore. The Folish sentric guarding the ship asked the crew for bread. The Folish sentric guarding the ship asked the crew for bread. The Folish sentric guarding the ship asked the crew for bread. The Folish sentric guarding the ship asked the crew for bread. The Folish sentric guarding the ship asked the crew for bread. The Folish sentric guarding the ship asked the crew for bread. The Folish sentric guarding the ship asked the crew for bread. The Folish sentric guarding the ship asked the crew for bread. The polish sentric guarding the ship asked the crew for bread. The polish sentric guarding the ship asked the crew for bread. The polish sentric guarding the ship asked the crew for bread. The polish sentric guarding the ship asked the crew for bread. The polish sentric guarding the ship asked the crew for bread. The polish sentric guarding the ship asked the crew for bread. The polish sentric guarding the ship asked the crew for bread. The polish sentric guarding the ship asked the crew for bread of situation in the polish sentric guarding the ship asked the crew for bread of situation in the polish sentric guarding the ship asked the crew for bread of situation in the polish sentric guarding the ship asked the crew for bread of situation in the polish sentric guarding the ship asked the crew for bread of situation in the polish sentric guarding the ship asked the crew for bread of situation in the polish sentric guarding the ship asked the crew for bread of situation in the polish sentric guarding the ship asked the crew for bread of situation in the polish sentric guarding the ship asked the crew for bread of situation in the polish sentric guarding the ship asked the crew for bread of situation in the polish sentric guarding the ship asked the crew for bread of situation in the polish sentric guarding the ship asked the crew for bread of situation in the polish sentric guarding the ship asked the crew for bread of situation in the polish sentric guarding the ship aske		2 to 2 th	PT boats, were observed i vessel berthed in the Reiherwaer or harbor, only the shirmaster was allowed to go ashore. The Polish sentric guarding the ship asked the crew for bread. The and cirarettes. Uniformed women police armed with rifles were seen on the quay. On the return trip on 5 July, the pilot complained about the bad food situation.	:	in the harbor. Derth charges, some of t	hom with a mod string
only the shirmaster was allowed to go ashore. The Folish sentric guarding the ship asked the crew for bread. The and cirarettes. Uniformed women police armed with rifles were seen on the quay. On the return trin on 5 July, the pilot complained about the bad food situation.		in the harbor. Depth charges, some of t about 100 mm wide, were observed on dec On 5 July three Soviet mine-sweepers upstream from Osternothafen, All other	hem with a red stripe k of some of the vessels.
		in the harbor. Depth charges, some of tabout 100 mm wide, were observed on dec on 5 July three Soviet mine-sweepers upstream from Osternothafen, All other left Swinemuende (Swinoujscie). A diving tender was at the exit of the	were a little vessels apparently had CLASSIFICATION SECRET,		in the harbor. Depth charges, some of tabout 100 mm wide, were observed on dec On 5 July three Soviet mine-sweepers upstream from Osternothafen, All other left Swinemuende (Swinoujscie). A diving tender was at the exit of the channel) into the bay. A diver was under the channel into the bay. A diver was under the shipmaster was allowed to go as guarding the ship asked the crew for brouniforned women police armed with rifle on the return trip on 5 July, the pilot	mps of two or three hem with a red stripe k of some of the vessels. only were a little vessels apparently had Kaiserfahrt (dredged er the water Reiherwaer or harbor, shore. The Folish sentrice ead. Tat and cigarettes, shore seen on the quay.

Approved For Release	2003/08/12 ·	CIA-RDP82.	.00457R014	4800080006-	ጸ
Approved to trelease	2000/00/12 .	CIA-INDI UZ-	-004071101-	+000000000	v

25X1

	ir oo tak	e the	arettos m ashoro	he w	would get ad received as offered barter for
nt. 411 Busly Report Chern Bal	identici orted. T ltic sin	od ve hey h ce th	ssols ad been e sumner	obse	rved in Swinenue] 25 nde
					*:
					•
					4.
		,
·			·	÷
	:			÷	• .
	usly reported the second secon	nt. All identical usly reported. The control of the	mt. All identified versely reported. They hathern Baltic since the	mt. All identified vessels usly reported. They had been thern Baltic since the summer	mt. All identified vessels usly reported. They had been observable the summer of i	ent. All identified vessels usly menorted. They had been observed in Swinemuck therm Baltic since the summer of 1951.